(LVIIIth YEAR.) THE (No. 2983.)

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 20, 1803.

HAGUE, November 7.

THE following is the ſubſtance of letters dated the 1ſt which have juſt arrived from Berne, Zurich, and Baſle: "Two French generals are to direct the operations in the cantons. The general in chief Ney is to confine himſelf to the weſtern; gen. Serras to the eaſtern.—Gen. Ferras has eſtabliſhed his head quarters at Zurich.

"On the 29th ult. a battalion of French infantry arrived unexpectedly at Zurich, and the 13th regiment of horſe chaſſeurs. On the next day, and on the 31ſt, ſeveral more French battalions of the 37th, 42d and 16th demi-brigades arrived; a part of thoſe troops are deſtined to form a garriſon of Zurich; the remainder have paſſed through that city on their march to Schwitz, Glarus, St. Call, Frauenfeldt, Zug, and other places.

"On the 31ſt gen. Ney arrived at Zurich to concert operations with gen. Serras.

"In conſequence of an intimation from the French general, the provisional government was obliged to diſſolve itſelf on the 30th, as well as all the adminiſtrative and judicial authorities which had been recently eſtabliſhed in the canton. The conſtitutional authorities have reſumed their functions. Before the provincial government itſelf, they addreſſed a proclamation to the inhabitants of the city and country parts, aſſuring them, "that they yielded only to force of arms, and that they reſerve to themſelves, by a ſolemn proteſt to Switzerland in general, and to the canton of Zurich in particular, the right of eſtabliſhing a conſtitution adapted to their intereſt; a right which the treaty of Luneville had formerly inſured to them."

"A courier extraordinary which arrived at Baſle, Berne, and Munich, on the 1ſt inſt. brings the important news, that the diet of Schwitz at length diſſolved itſelf on the 28th of laſt month. But they previouſly publiſhed a proteſt, couched in the ſame bold and manly terms which have been remarked in all their preceding proclamations.

"Gen. Bachmann, who is alſo at Schwitz, has, on his ſide, ſent a circular letter to all the chiefs of the confederated troops who are ſtill in the field, enjoining them to diſband their troops and return to their homes. As ſoon as this order was publiſhed on the banks of the Rouss, the army which was paſted there ſeparated, and began to march for the different cantons of eaſtern Switzerland.

"It is aſſerted, that the cantons of Uri and Underwald have been occupied by the French troops from the Valais who paſſed the Furka and the Grimſel, and that a corps of French and Italian troops, ſeveral thouſand ſtrong, have entered Valteline and the Griſons, to re-eſtabliſh order and tranquillity. The town of Soleure, is occupied by 570 French and Helvetic troops."

Such is the lateſt intelligence from Switzerland. Bruſſels, Antwerp and Ghent, expect a conſular viſit before the end of this month. Freſh orders have been iſſued, and the prefect of the department of the Scheldt has even taken a tour for the purpoſe of adopting meaſures to prevent the introduction of Britiſh merchandiſe from the coaſt of Dutch Flanders.

LONDON, November 13.

Private letters from France contain intelligence of very conſiderable importance indeed! After the ratification of the treaty of Amiens, Britiſh ſubjects having money in the French funds were of courſe to be paid, and were paid the arrears upon their ſtock which had accrued before the war, and during its continuance. The beginning of this week, however, ſome perſons making the cuſtomary applications to the French bankers, we know not, with certainty, whether to Perregeaux, Rocamier, Sir Robert Smith, or others, are ſaid to have received for anſwer—"that they were ſorry to inform them, that under the preſent circumſtances and ſituation of the two countries, and as the Britiſh government had not thought proper to execute the whole of the treaty of Amiens on their part, the French government has deemed it neceſſary to iſſue a decree, ordering the payment of theſe arrears to be ſuſpended."—Such is the intelligence which has been received. We give it as we received it.—(Courier.)

BOSTON, January 4.

We have received from a friend at Paris, the papers of that city to November 13. Switzerland was occupied by French troops; and the form of government was framing which was to be impoſed, in the name of liberty, on the wretched inhabitants of that country.—The principal difficulty in the adjuſtment of the "indemnities" had been removed, by propoſitions which were ſatisfactory to the ci-devant grand duke of Tuſcany and the emperor of Germany; and has rendered the continuance of peace more probable. —The firſt conſul was proceeding to viſit the different ſeaports of his nation; he had been at Rouen and Havre, and was every where received with acclamation, illumination, &c. &c.

Some incendiary attempts have been made at Amſterdam.

NEW-YORK, January 8.

Equeſtrian Statue of Waſhington.

The ſubſcriptions for the equeſtrian ſtatue of Waſhington meet, we are informed, with the moſt flattering encouragement. The books were opened by each ſubſcriber at one hundred dollars, at which rate, it is preſumed, that at leaſt one hundred names will be obtained. Voluntary contributions are rarely in proportion to wealth and ability; the generous ardour of unbounded zeal often outſtrips prudential calculations, whilſt the circumſpection of chill parſimony always fall ſhort of its due tribute. On this occaſion, however, we are happy to find that thoſe who are bleſſed with the means are not deficient in the application. This is right, the weight of the preſent undertaking ought to fall on thoſe who enjoy a redundancy of fortune's favours.

January 10.

Captain Rogers of the brig Georgia, has obligingly favoured the editor of the Mercantile Adverſſer with Savanna papers to the 28th ult. One of that date mentions the arrival there of the barque Nixon, in 56 days from Liverpool, with information that previous to her departure an Engliſh fleet had ſailed for the Mediterranan in three hours warning; that another was ready at Spithead waiting for orders; and that rendezvous houſes, were opened for ſailors, and large bounties offered to thoſe who would wiſh to enter voluntarily into the navy.

Extract of a letter from Havre, October 14.

"The new duties that the French government has laid on Weſt-India produce coming in foreign bottoms, will prejudice very much the commerce of the United States with France. American veſſels will not be able to import into this country even the natural productions of the United States unleſs the American government take ſome effectual meaſures to ſecure to us this valuable privilege, by impoſing on French veſſels and goods a duty equivalent to the one that thoſe of the United States are ſubjected to, in this country.

The articles which beſt ſuit this market, and which can ſtill be brought here in our veſſels without paying a high duty, are, oils, indigo, cochineal, pot-aſh, dyewoods, cotton, rice, whalebone, deer ſkins in the hair, hides, tortoiſeſhell, bees-wax, lignumvitæ, mahogany. American tar and turpentine will not anſwer this market, that of the Baltic is always preferred. The ſame prejudice reigns againſt the oak timber of the U. States.

"Tobacco will anſwer well, provided it is ſhipped in French bottoms.

"Tobacco imported in French bottoms and put into entrepot, may be exported from thence, free of duty, any time within 18 months after it ſhall be depoſited. If taken out of the entrepot for conſumption, the importer or conſignee liable for the duties—which are one third leſs in French, than in foreign bottoms. The charges on a hogſhead of tobacco are about 5 francs, excluſive of commiſſion and duties."

PHILADELPHIA, January 11.

Extract of a letter from Natchez, dated 25th November.

"We have of late been ſeriouſly alarmed at the proceedings of the Spaniſh reſident at New-Orleans; who in direct violation of treaty, has done away the benefit of a depoſit there, and thus occaſioned a very conſiderable interruption to our commerce. We are now compelled to pay 6 per cent. on goods ſent there, which are immediately conſidered as Spaniſh property, and can only be ſhipped in Spaniſh bottoms, and cleared out for Spaniſh ports; how this will be reliſhed by our executive and legiſlature, I cannot take upon me to ſay; but the people of the weſtern country will not long ſubmit to it, but at all hazards take poſſeſſion of New-Orleans, and all the country eaſt of the Miſſiſſippi; and this they can eaſily accompliſh if the French troops do not come to prevent it. I truſt, however, firmly in the energies of the general government for redreſs, though many aſſert that a difference of intereſt exiſt between the eaſtern and weſtern ſtates, and therefore propheſy that the day is not diſtant, when the country watered by the Miſſiſſippi will ſeparate from the union, and form itſelf into one great independent empire.

"More than one million of people daily drink of the waters of the Miſſiſſippi: they inhabit a country, rich in reſources, beyond the ideas of the citizens of the older ſtates, who have a very faint conception of its commerce, or the enterprize of its well informed inhabitants—no where in the world do the people live with leſs labour than they do here, and the hoſpitality and liberality of the inhabitants, are very great indeed.

"The inhabitants of Louiſiana, are very friendly diſpoſed to the United States, indeed their intereſts are the ſame with ours, and having experienced the benefits of having the river free, they are much diſpleaſed at the exiſting impediments; they therefore cannot long exiſt, and even if the French come, ſurely they will not be ſo blind to their own intereſts as to have a rupture with the United States."

Extract of a letter from Gibraltar, dated on board the United States frigate John Adams, December 4, to a gentleman in this city.

"We arrived here the 30th November, to take in proviſions for commodore Morris, who is at Malta. We ſhall ſtop at Malaga, and go up in company with the Conſtellation. All our ſquadron except the Adams, Campbell, winter at Malta, and we all live in hopes, that by the arrival of ſpring, the commodore will make an attack on Tripoli. Yeſterday a ſtore-ſhip arrived in 24 days from New-York.

January 14.

To the humane, benevolent citizens of the commercial cities and ſeaports, and of the interior of the United States.

The reſpectful addreſs of the committee of the town of Portſmouth, in the ſtate of New-Hampſhire, in behalf of the town.

The duty we owe to our conſtituents, the citizens of this deſolated town, impels us to lay before you in general and conciſe terms, its preſent ſuffering ſtate.

The late terrible fire with which Divine Providence has viſited us, in a view of all circumſtances, is believed to be without a parallel in our common country.—This town, retarded in its early growth by many cauſes, ſeemed beginning to overcome thoſe obſtacles, when the revolutionary war, by its neceſſary effects, nearly annihilated its former and principal branches of commerce. It was juſt emerging from this ſtate, its trade began to revive and increaſe, and particularly in the central part of the town; where great exertions were made, and much money was laid out to render it commodious for the purpoſe, and even to embelliſh it.

This fair and beautiful part of the town has in one ſhort day, become a heap of aſhes and rubbiſh, exhibiting ſuch a ſcene of devaſtation and ruin, as gives freſh pain at every new view—the number and value of the ſtreets totally or in a great meaſure deſtroyed—the number of the inhabitants now expoſed to ſufferings and hardſhips beyond the relief tendered by their ſympathiſing neighbours. The aged, and infirm, widows and orphans unhouſed in midwinter—the ſtagnation of buſineſs, excepting the labour patiently ſubmitted to, and going on, of rearing or fitting up ſhelters for perſons and property reſcued from the flames. The great deſtruction of books, accounts, and papers of very great value—the inability of the inhabitants of the town to preſerve, without aſſiſtance, its trade with the interior, ready to fly off in many directions—and finally the damages conſequential to ſuch a ſtate of ruin, which though they may be conceived, baffle all deſcription and calculation—ALL CONCUR to plead powerfully with the opulent and the proſperous; indeed, with all in a comfortable ſtate, who feel themſelves expoſed to like calamities, and that they may need like aſſiſtance from ſympathiſing friends and countrymen—It is from perſons in proſpering or eaſy circumſtances, that relief is peculiarly deſired, and ſolicited—But injuſtice would be done to our own feelings to thoſe of our ſuffering friends and neighbours, and to thoſe of our benevolent fellow-citizens in the union, did we not declare that the ſmalleſt donations which may be made by the compaſſionate of every claſs, will be gratefully received, and with all others faithfullv appropriated. This town has cheerfully had a fellow feeling on like calamities taking place in diſtant parts of the union, and has no doubts of experiencing the ſympathy it feels bound to ſhew.

IMPORTANT COMMUNICATION.

The law enacted by the legiſlature of Pennſylvania, on the 12th March, 1800, which allowed further time to all who had title, their heirs or aſſigns, to any lands, tenements or hereditaments, on the 26th day of March, 1785, to purſue their actions for the ſame if they were unjuſtly kept out of poſſeſſion—will give no time further than the 25th day of March next, to enter their ſaid actions, ſo that if they will not embrace the opportunity before that day, they will lose such estates for ever, let their title be ever so good. Those who wish further information on this subject, may have it by applying at No. 3, Plumb-street.

As news-papers are the proper channels of information, it is hoped that the several printers thereof, both in this and the United States, and also in Europe, will insert the above piece of intelligence, as people in all those places may be effected thereby.

Extract of a letter from consul Simpson to consul Gavino, dated Tangiers, (Morocco) September 27, 1802.

"I am happy to tell you that some matters in discussion with this country, have already been so explained, and misconceptions on the part of this government done away, as leaves me no room to apprehend longer a necessity of having recourse to America for instructions, as every matter is in the fairest train of perfect accommodation, and I hope the gun carriages will come just in time to settle every thing at least for some years, until they think of something else to ask for."

RESOLUTIONS

Assented to, November session, 1802.

Resolved, That the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the council, be and he is hereby authorised and requested to appoint three commissioners on the part of the state of Maryland, to meet such commissioner or commissioners as may be appointed on the part of the state of Pennsylvania, and also on the part of the Susquehanna canal company, at such time and place as may mutually be agreed upon, to digest and prepare such plan or compact for the further and effectual improvement of the navigation of the river Susquehanna as may appear most conducive to their joint interests, which plan or compact, when reported to, and ratified by, the succeeding legislatures of the two states, shall be mutually binding and obligatory.

Resolved, That the governor be and he is hereby requested to forward the aforegoing resolution to the governor of the state of Pennsylvania.

Resolved, That the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the council, be and he is hereby authorised and required to make such compensation to the commissioners to be appointed by the aforegoing resolution, when they shall have executed the duties therein prescribed, as he shall deem just and reasonable, by order drawn on the treasurer of the western shore, who is hereby directed to pay the same out of any unappropriated monies in the treasury.

COUNCIL CHAMBER,
January 10th, 1803.

Gentlemen,

It will appear by the papers enclosed, that on Saturday evening the council thought proper to meet, and during my absence to act upon your resolution of the 5th of January, 1803, to appoint three gentlemen as commissioners on the part of this state to meet commissioners on the part of Pennsylvania, and on the part of the Susquehanna canal company, and to notify them their appointments, to which notifications answers have been received. As this is wholly repugnant to what I consider as the letter and spirit of the resolution, I have deemed it my duty to submit this morning a nomination of Alexander C. Hanson, Gabriel Duvall and John T. Mason, Esquires, as commissioners on the part of this state, under your resolution. On this submission the council have refused to act, and as their whole conduct appears to me so flagrant a violation of your resolution, and so personally disrespectful to myself, I consider it as my duty to submit the whole to the legislature.

With the most entire and perfect esteem,
I have the honour to be,
Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
JOHN F. MERCER.

The honourable the president of the Senate, and speaker of the house of Delegates.

COUNCIL CHAMBER,
January 10th, 1803.

Gentlemen,

His excellency the governor having communicated to the council, a letter addressed by him to the general assembly, on the subject of appointments made by the council on Saturday evening, in his absence; the undersigned deem it a duty they owe to themselves to state the circumstances of that transaction.

It was discovered on Saturday morning, in the course of conversation, that a difference of opinion existed between his excellency and the council, with respect to the persons to be appointed on the part of this state to meet commissioners to be appointed on the part of the state of Pennsylvania and the Susquehanna canal company respectively. With a view of obtaining a coincidence of sentiment on this subject, and in order to have a full council (one of the members intending to leave the city the next day) an adjournment till 5 o'clock P. M. of the same day, was in the presence of, and with the approbation of the governor, agreed to. At that hour the council met, and after having waited until all expectation of his excellency's attendance was exhausted, proceeded to make the appointments.

The undersigned solemnly aver, that in this procedure, they neither intended, nor do they feel themselves justly chargeable with, the slightest degree of personal disrespect toward the governor.

The general assembly cannot fail to perceive, that the real difference between the governor and the council, is with regard to the right of nomination.

The undersigned believe, that ever since the adoption of the constitution of this state, this right has been exercised concurrently, by the governor and the council, and the undersigned will be permitted to add, that in their opinion, the construction of the constitution, thus evidenced by the practice of every former executive, is a correct one. Were the right of nomination exclusively vested in the governor, the undersigned cannot suppose, that the governor, whoever he may be, will nominate any other than such persons as he himself wishes to be appointed. A construction, that "the advice and consent" of the council is thus limited to the governor's nomination, would in effect be conferring upon the governor a negative upon all appointments; and would reduce the constitutional powers of the council to a simple assent to the governor's propositions.

The undersigned submit this diversity of opinion between his excellency and the council, as to their respective powers, to the wisdom of the general assembly, and are with the highest respect,

Your obt. servants,

Francis Digges,
Allen B. Duckett,
Edward Hall,
Reverdy Ghiselin,
D. David.

To the honourable the General Assembly.

The gentlemen nominated by the council, were A. C. Hanson, James Houston and John Montgomery, Esquires.

Whether is an opposition of parties in a republican government promotive of its welfare?

Determined in the negative.

On Friday the 21st inst. the following question will be discussed:

By order of the president,
JOHN SANDERS, Sec'ry.

FOR SALE.

On Tuesday the 1st day of February next, if fair, if not the first fair day, will be offered for SALE, to the highest bidder,

TWO hundred acres of LAND, whereon the subscriber at present lives, situated on the stage road from Annapolis to the city of Washington, 11 miles from the former, and about 25 from the latter; for healthiness of situation, and elegance of prospect, there is not a finer seat in Maryland; there are on the farm two very extensive orchards of apples and peaches, from which may be made 500 gallons of brandy, and there are now at least 3000 young peach trees ready to replant. As it is presumed that those who are inclined to purchase will visit the farm, it is needless to describe it more accurately.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, the 10th January, 1803, in Prince-George's county, two miles from the Governor's Bridge, a negro man named SAM, about 50 years of age, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, a little bow legged, and stoops as he walks; had on when he went off a country cloth jacket and breeches, kersey wove, the upper part of both sleeves is black under the arms, it is useless for me to attempt to describe any other cloathing, as he had a variety, and is a likely artful fellow; I expect he has a pass, and will change his name and cloaths and pass for a free man. I purchased him several years ago at the sale of Mr. Robert Tyler. I am informed he has a brother and son at major Stoddart's quarter, near George-town, where it is likely he may be harboured, he pretends to be religious, but keeps three wives. The said fellow ran away from Mr. Tyler and was taken up near Frederick, with a pass. I will give 10 dollars to any person securing the said fellow in any gaol, so that I get him again, if brought home 12 dollars, if taken out of the state and brought home the above reward.

I forwarn all persons from harbouring, employing, or carrying off the said fellow at their peril.
